

Cancellation policy:

We require notice of 48 hours for any cancellations or changes to driving lesson appointments. Any cancellations without sufficient notice, “no-shows” for appointments, or cancelled lessons for failing to bring learner’s permit or license will result in a $45 cancellation fee. This includes cancellations due to school and work related activities, as those are normally scheduled in advance as well. So please be careful when scheduling. We will call to remind you of your appointment each time.

Lessons are “rain or shine”

All lessons can be done quite safely in all but the worst weather conditions. In almost all cases we will conduct lessons in rain, wind, or fog. In fact it is a very good opportunity for students to learn important issues in foul weather driving. Please do not assume the lessons will be “rained out” on rainy days. Of course instructors will use their best judgment, and will postpone the lesson if it does become dangerous.

Home or School Pickups:

We can pick up students at home or school in most cases. However, these kinds of appointments usually fill quickly. As a general rule, if you can plan 3-4 weeks ahead, we can schedule a home/school pickup with no trouble at all. Often you can get an appointment a lot sooner if you are able to begin and/or end the lesson at the Driving School. This is a 6 month process. So if possible, try to make it easy on yourself and plan appointments 3-4 weeks ahead of time.

Special note on pickups in El Dorado Hills or East of El Dorado Hills:

For lessons 2-4, we are teaching more advanced driving. The choice is always yours...but students will get a more effective and valuable lesson when you start and finish lessons at the driving school. We will normally need to travel into Folsom to find the more complex city situations on lessons 2-4. Traveling from the hills down to Folsom is not very advanced or varied driving. Depending on traffic, we can lose up to 40 minutes of effective learning time if we need to travel down and back during the lesson. Starting here allows us to focus for a full 90 minutes on advanced issues.

Deposits and Packages are non-refundable and non-transferable.

I have read the above information, and agree to these terms.
