To get a Washington State driver license, applicants are required to pass a knowledge and driving test. Munros' Driving Instruction, Inc. is authorized by the Department of Licensing to provide both the knowledge and driving tests. In order to test with us, applicants must either visit a Department of Licensing office to provide the necessary documents or pre-apply online at <http://www.dol.wa.gov/driverslicense/preapply.html>.

Scores for the knowledge and driving test will be reported to the Department of Licensing electronically within 24 hours. Passing the knowledge and driving test does not guarantee that an applicant will be issued a driver license. The Department of Licensing will determine if an applicant has met all licensing requirements. The Department of Licensing reserves the right to retest applicants who complete tests through Munros' Driving Instruction. Retesting is done at random and at no cost to the applicant.

Knowledge Test

The knowledge test consists of 25 multiple-choice questions about traffic safety laws. Applicants must answer at least 20 questions correctly in order to pass the test. The knowledge test will be offered at specific times at select locations. For more information and to reserve your slot, please call our office at 1-800-437-4834 or enroll online.

The driving test will test applicants' ability to drive legally and safely. Applicants must pass the driving test with a score of 80 or better out of 100 possible points.
